This vacant allotment represents a unique and rare opportunity in a highly coveted position. The uninterrupted water views are simply outstanding and very few properties in Inverloch can boast this aspect of Anderson Inlet, Point Smythe and the Bass Coast.

The beach front is just a minute away whilst only a very short stroll via a walking path to the town centre for your morning cafe experience. The land presents the perfect platform to build a substantial home amongst some of the finest designed properties in this area. Offers considered. Land: 588sqm
