"Quambi" is a spectacular Victorian country residence steeped in history and heritage and set on 6.29 Hectares of South Gippsland's rolling green hills with views for miles. The stately residence sits peacefully amidst an enchanting garden full of mature specimen trees and shrubs that only time and love can create. Original vintage architectural features are everywhere you look in the large family homestead comprising of four large bedrooms, an amazing light filled kitchen and family dining room leading onto one of the many outside terraces. The home also benefits from two large living areas connected by wide hallways.
