Big rooms and large windows help create this traditional Considine & Johnston brick built home that is both stylish and spacious. The inspired use of internal space is loaded with quality workmanship throughout. Enjoying a brilliant location, in the very heart of Leongatha, this secure home with plenty of natural light is an exceptional place to live. The large living area is the perfect place for the family to get together whilst the cozy lounge room provides a secluded retreat to curl up with a good book.
